

VET4BioECONOMY

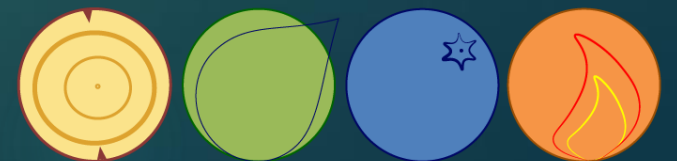

FINAL CONFERENCE

14.-15. JUNE 2021

Forest-based bioeconomy Best practice examples from Croatia

ANTON BRENKO, CROATIAN FOREST RESEARCH INSTITUTE

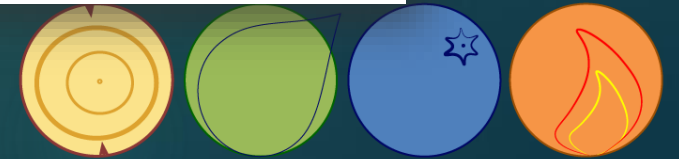

House of Magical Grass – Family-run farm Jakopović

Kuća magične trave – OPG Jakopović

- ▶ Pioneers of organic cosmetic production in Croatia
- ▶ Their first product was the lemon-balm tea (Melissa officinalis)
- ▶ Today they are producing a large variety of products:

Face, body and hair care, Mouth and oral cavity products, Cosmetics for men (aftershaves, body lotions, skin care), Baby cosmetics, souvenirs, etc...

House of Magical Grass – Family-run farm Jakopović

Kuća magične trave – OPG Jakopović

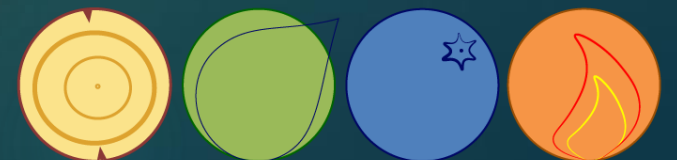

Newest NWFP products from:

- ▶ Symphytum officinale – Common comfrey
- ▶ Helichrysum italicum – Immortelle
- ▶ Hypericum perforatum - St John's-wort

CERTIFICATES: Eco cosmetics, 100% natural cosmetics and Natural cosmetics

WEB-SHOP: www.opg-jakopovic.hr

ANTELA d.o.o.

- ▶ Company from Croatia that is producing paper straws with the idea of replacing fossil fuels with bio-based feedstock.
- ▶ Cellulose as an alternative to fossil fuels.
- ▶ This well known product, usually made from fossil fuels, is transformed into environmentally friendly product, made of quality materials with all necessary certificates.
- ▶ New clothes for an old product

